

Previous SNAP Support Letters & Resolutions (Before 115th Congress)

Advocacy efforts at the state and local level have been critically important in strengthening and safeguarding federal food and nutrition programs. Below are examples of past efforts to help you in developing messages to champion these programs.

State and Local Letters

- City of Oakland letter to Farm Bill conferees expressing support to SNAP. (2013)
- County of Los Angeles Board of Supervisors letter to Chairwoman Stabenow opposing SNAP cuts and describing the possible outcomes of the House proposals. (2013)
- County Welfare Directors Association of California letter to all Farm Bill conferees opposing SNAP cuts and outlining how specific proposals would harm groups within California. (2013)
- Letter from 19 mayors outlining the importance of SNAP for their constituents and local businesses. (2014)
- Michigan organizations letter to Senator Stabenow outlining the importance of SNAP for the state of Michigan and its residents. (2013)
- Minnesota Food Share \(an inter-faith group\) letter to Senator Franken supporting SNAP and the often vulnerable groups of people that use the program. (2012)
- Ohio Grocers Association letter to their Congresswoman Fudge about the importance of SNAP to both program participants and the businesses they buy their food from. (2012)

City Council Resolutions

- Los Angeles City Council resolution in support of SNAP. (2012)
- New York City Council resolution in support of SNAP. (2013)
- Oakland, CA city council resolution opposing changes in SNAP. (2013)